4. Written Feedback

4.1) What were the strengths of this course and/or instructor?

- Being able to work at my own pace

- Lectures were great and she explained everything very well

- Online - No need of coming to the class. With my busy schedule it allowed me to take additional clas as this one. Otherwise I would end up taking only 8 credits instead of 12.

- The instructor is very involved. She emails up with information about what's going on. Also, she gives us time to work on assignments. She's very accommodating. Her recorded lectures are great!

- The professor gave us a lot of time to complete assignments

- The professor was knowledgeable about the course and was attentive to any questions or concerns we had via email. She was also very fair in grading and gave us a few attempts on our tests and assignments.

- The video with the lectures were very helpful.

- Very motivated to help all her students and cares to provide assistance with any problems. She's very good with posting material on time and her screen casts are amazing, she's clear and concise.

- excellent custom video lectures done for every chapter she was great

4.2) What were the weaknesses of this course and/or instructor?

- Macroeconomics is a very comprehensive course.
  A lot of reading material was not covered in the lectures. Externally hard test. Way too many questions. Assignments and quizzes with too many questions.

- Quizzes could be hard

- The snow days threw our syllabus off. So chapters were crammed.

- There were no weaknesses

- There were no weaknesses in this course

- no weaknesses

- the quizes and work and tests had questions that oftentime were not covered in video lectures and I am not sure where I should have been picking up the info but overall great class and i would like to take her microeconomics course

4.3) Use this space for any additional comments.

- I liked the way our online textbook explained each chapter. It just made it easier to understand the material.

- great professor
